

REBELS PLAN TO ATTACK PANAMA

Force of Insurgents Now Within Eight Miles of the City.

WORK OF DEFENSE

Herrera's Fleet Retires, Having Accomplished Its Mission of Destruction.

MOURN GEN'L ALBAN

Panama, Jan. 22.—An insurgent force is at Los Llanos, eight miles from the city, and it is believed an attack on the town is contemplated. According to passengers who arrived this morning from Colon a number of rebels were met at Gorondo station. Arjona, the civil governor, has taken over the command of the city, succeeding General Alban, who was killed yesterday. Arjona has 1,000 men and is prepared to make a vigorous resistance should the city be attacked.

A spy sent by the revolutionary General Bellasario Porras, was captured here yesterday. Papers were found upon him which compromise certain important liberals.

Rebel Fleet Withdraws

The rebel fleet has withdrawn, having accomplished its main purpose, the destruction of the Lautaro. Today General Herrera, the revolutionary leader, told Captain Mead of the United States cruiser Philadelphia that the battle was fought with this one end in view. The insurgents had seventeen men wounded but the number of killed cannot be precisely ascertained. Of the government forces five men were killed and four wounded.

Gen. Garcia to Lead

General Garcia, a veteran officer, has been appointed military commander of the district, in succession to General Alban. Senor Arjona is the civil governor.

It is believed that the revolutionary warships were damaged. The capture of Panama by the revolutionists is considered impossible, owing to the number of government troops there.

The revolutionists are reported to be at Los Llanos, eight miles from Panama. The government has issued a decree conferring honors upon General Carlos Alban, who was killed in yesterday's fighting in the bay.

The Wisconsin at Valparaiso. Cantlargo de Chile, Jan. 22.—The United States battleship Wisconsin has arrived at Valparaiso. The United States battleship Iowa, which has been in dry dock at Talcahuano, and the Wisconsin will proceed north in about ten days.

Panama's Downfall Predicted

New York, Jan. 22.—At the headquarters of the Liberal revolutionists in this city Dr. A. J. Restrepo, diplomatic representative, said he expected soon to receive a dispatch direct from Panama telling of its capture. Of the effect of General Alban's death on the insurrection, the rebel agent said:

"General Alban was the backbone of the government army, and his death means the utter demoralization of its forces on the isthmus. It is a great blow to the government and an important victory for the Liberals. He was a terrible enemy, and there is no one whom Colombia can appoint to properly fill his place."

"A land attack of Panama is also contemplated by the insurgents. They are said to number 4,000 in that department, and are well equipped. Their commander is General Benjamin Herrera, one of the most efficient leaders in the Liberal army. Several expeditions bearing arms captured by the rebels at the taking of Tumaco have recently landed near Panama. Among these are eighteen cannon."

Allison and Dolliver

Des Moines, Jan. 22.—Senators Allison and Dolliver will continue to represent Iowa in the upper house of the national Congress. The two houses of the legislature balloted separately yesterday and will meet in joint session today to ratify yesterday's action. No speeches were made, and the vote was strictly partisan, the Democratic vote going to E. H. Thayer of Clinton and J. J. Serley of Burlington. Senator Allison was elected for the term beginning March 4, 1903, and Senator Dolliver for the term which began March 4, 1901, the first part of which he has served by appointment of Governor Shaw.

The standing committees of the senate and house were announced by the presiding officers. In the senate twelve bills were introduced. These include measures for the codification of the session laws passed since the code of 1897 went into effect, to legalize primary elections, to prohibit child labor, to permit discrimination in freight rates by railroads for the benefit of manufacturers within the state, and to increase the building tax levy of the state university from one-tenth to two-tenths of a mill.

Byron Snyder was up from Clinton yesterday on business.

EDMUND J. JAMES MADE PRESIDENT

Noted Educator Elected To Be Head of the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill.

Evanston, Ill., Jan. 22.—Professor Edmund J. James was unanimously elected president of the Northwestern University at a meeting of board of trustees held yesterday afternoon. He will immediately resign his position as professor of public administration and director of the university extension division at the University of Chicago, and will enter upon his new and larger duties about Feb. 1.

The election of Professor James ends the quest for a president that has engaged the attention of Northwestern university for two years, since the resignation of Dr. Henry Wade Rogers. During that time Dr. Daniel Donbright has been serving as temporary head of the institution.

MAN COUGHS UP A BAYONET TIP

An Old Soldier, Supposed to Have Consumption, Surprises the Doctors.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 22.—After being given up to die of what the doctors supposed was consumption, James W. Plunkett, a veteran soldier of the regular army, now staying in the city, surprised them today by coughing up the tip of a bayonet out of his lungs. He probably will get well.

Plunkett, who is a soldier of twenty years' experience, and who last saw service in the Forty-First United States volunteer infantry, is unable to account for the tip in his lungs, but supposed he must have swallowed it. He often used his bayonet as a can opener, and presumably the point broke off in a can of meat.

FIRST TRAIN INTO TOWN OF ROCKTON

Jubilee of the Residents Because of the Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville Road.

Beloit, Wis., Jan. 22.—The village of Rockton, just across the line, in Illinois held a jubilee today over the first train on the Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville electric line. The train passed through loaded with supplies and was greeted with shouts and hurrahs from nearly the whole population. It was an event.

Beloit people are very much encouraged over the prospect of securing the new $50,000 hotel. Five subscriptions of $1,000 each and five of $500 each were received today. The hotel is now an assured fact.

COLOMBIA WILL WANT A RENTAL

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—The Colombian minister had a conference with Admiral Walker, president of the Isthmian canal commission, in which he outlined Colombia's attitude toward the Panama canal project. Colombia is willing to give the United States absolute control of the zone through which the canal will pass but will not surrender over the territory. Colombia will want an annual rental from the United States and will lease the right of way across the isthmus for a term of two hundred years with the privilege of removal.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The United States Consul at Colon Colombia in a cablegram to the state department this morning says a concerted attack on Colon by the insurgents is hourly expected.

HAMILTON GIVES BOTH A BLOW

London, Jan. 22.—Lord Kitchener in a report received today says Bruce Hamilton recently marched against Botha. Botha shifted his position but twenty-seven of his men were captured. Methuen overlooked the command at Bloemfontein and after running fight of eight miles captured a larger part, retaking twenty-five prisoners and a quantity of cattle.

PROGRESS OF NEELY TRIAL

Postoffice Inspectors Testify as to Discrepancies in the Books. Havana, Jan. 22.—In the postoffice frauds trial Tuesday Inspectors Seybold and Neill testified to the examination of Neely's cash April 23, by order of Rathbone. They said the account balanced with the auditor's statement and that they thought Neely knew of this intended inspection.

After hearing that Col. Burton, inspector general of the division of Cuba, had discovered discrepancies in the postal accounts, they re-examined the books in Neely's office, but then did not find anything wrong. Seybold and Neill said they did not examine the auditor's books, but received a statement from Acting Auditor Reynolds as to the amount of money Neely should have. Some time after this examination they discovered by Rathbone's report that not as many stamps as it was alleged had been burned, had been sent from the United States.

New York, Jan. 22.—Marconi sailed today for Europe. He refused to say anything further regarding the breaking of his engagement with Miss Holdiman.

IS TOO LATE TO STEM THE TIDE

The Whitehead Boom Has Thrown Half Breeds Into a Daze.

WILDER IN FOR IT

He Made a Bad Mistake in Allowing Janesville Man To Speak.

CLAIM IT WAS TRICK

Neither Amos P. Wilder nor any of his friends thought for a moment that Whitehead would say a word in his Madison speech that would cause every stalwart in the state to rally to his standard, and it is doubtful if Whitehead himself believed that the address he wrote would result in anything like a spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm in his behalf, says the Milwaukee correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean. But it did, and now La Follette's official organ says it was all a trick, which is rather a serious reflection upon the very estimable editor of the State Journal, Mr. Wilder, for he is the only person who had anything to do with inviting Whitehead to talk.

The half-breed organ has been in a daze on account of the turn in affairs since the Whitehead address was delivered, and it was expected that it would discover sooner or later that something had dropped. It calls it a trick. Wilder will object to this, no doubt.

Great Deal of Comment.

The organ says there has been a great deal of comment over the state about the manner in which the stalwarts and Senator Whitehead tricked the club, and it is wondered at exceedingly, but there will be a long gap between now and the day that the organ is able to connect any one it mentions with playing the trick.

Whitehead did not ask Wilder to let him speak; in fact, he at first decided to decline, and Wilder is known to have said to a number of his friends who expressed concern about it that "he didn't believe Whitehead would accept anyway."

After the address was made they thought it was so good that they had 200,000 copies of it printed and distributed in every voting precinct of the state, to show people the difference between a real simon-pure reformer and one of the kind that howls and bellows about "God's patient poor" and the wicked rich.

It was believed that the people would be glad to hear something from a man who is earnest in his advocacy of tax reform, and who was not afraid to speak to the point without condemning or praising any one for the purpose of catching votes. The people who repudiated Bryan admire this Whitehead literature, and, judging from the returns which have only begun to come in at the eleventh hour the republican league will be obliged to change its policy concerning candidates and take up Whitehead.

Too late to stem the tide. The LaFollette organ of LaFollette knows how the Whitehead boom was launched, but it was all over before it awoke to a realization of its full meaning. It is too late to complain or try to stem the tide.

The meat in the coconut is contained in one expression recently made by Wilder. He said: "The fact is the two men (Whitehead and LaFollette) stand for the same things, and it is a pity they are so divorced." This is what is so annoying to the LaFolletteites. Many of them have recognized Whitehead as a reformer, and still recognize him as one just as the stalwarts do, only the latter understand that there is a difference of method proposed by the two men in bringing about desired reforms in taxation and election.

The one appeals to the prejudices of the people and proposes to do things in but one way, and that way his own, while the other is in favor of moderation, careful consideration of the opinions of other wise men, and does not believe a governor is expected to usurp the functions of the legislator.

ALBAN'S PLANS FORESTALLED.

Exchange of Prisoners Resulted in the Victory of Insurgents.

Panama, Jan. 22.—The victory of the Colombian insurgents in the bay Monday was due to the exchange of prisoners, through whom the rebels learned that Gen. Alban intended to get the steamship Lautaro ready to fight their vessels. The revolutionists determined to attack the Lautaro before she was ready. Their plan was rendered easily successful, because the Lautaro had no steam up when the revolutionary craft appeared.

Excitement in Panama is considerably abated. Gen. Lauriano Garcia quietly assumed command of the isthmian forces. The secretary of the government is acting as civil and military chief. Both he and Gen. Garcia have issued patriotic proclamations.

The revolutionists had seventeen wounded in Monday's engagement. The number killed cannot be precisely ascertained. Of the government forces five men were killed and four wounded.

New York, Jan. 22.—Ex-Boss Croker sailed for England this morning. Only a few friends bade him goodbye.

FINAL END OF FILIPINO WAR

Gov. Taft Says All Opposition Will End During Present Year.

TROOPS TO RETURN

Needs of Natives of Eastern Archipelago To Be Laid Before Roosevelt.

LIKE THE CIVIL RULE

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 22.—Real war no longer exists in the Philippines, according to Governor William H. Taft of the islands, who came ashore yesterday from the transport Grant, just in from Manila.

The insurrection now is confined to two localities—the Province of Batangas and the island of Samar—said Governor Taft, who holds that even in those places peace is in sight. The surrendering of 700 rifles by the natives of Batangas, reported today by Lieutenant Governor Wright, leaves few weapons in that province, and the governor deemed it improbable that General Bell would have to inaugurate his reconcentration plan.

Opposition Nearing Its End

That all opposition to the United States will be ended before the end of the present year was predicted by the governor, and he said that by that time the occupation army could be reduced to 17,000 men, who, with the native constabulary, would maintain order.

Other points which Governor Taft would impress upon the people here the importance of legalizing the present tariff law to provide ample revenue for the island government and the necessity of purchasing the lands held by the friars and reselling them to the present tenants on easy terms.

Natives Good Christians

Despite the general denunciation of the friars, the governor said they did much in christianizing the natives, who at heart are Catholics and would return to the religion were the abuses which have grown up in recent years are done away with.

Governor Taft came ashore yesterday at noon and is at the Palace with his family. He will remain here until this evening, when he will take the train for the East, going by way of Cincinnati, his home, where he will leave his family. He then will proceed to Washington for consultation with the President concerning the situation in the Philippines and coming action by congress for the islands.

Present Tariff Held Just

"We have just recommended to congress that the tariff schedules as adopted by us be affirmed by congress, which was done," said Governor Taft, in discussing Philippine affairs. "In that we impose an ad valorem duty running from about 15 to 5 per cent. This is giving the islands a revenue sufficiently large to pay the expenses of government and provide the improvements which the commission has decided upon."

"We need a tariff adapted to the needs of the islands. Only through a large revenue obtained from customs can we meet those expenditures. Money cannot be obtained through direct taxation in sufficient amounts."

PAPER MILL MEN SIGN AGREEMENT

They Will Not Strike—Break in the Brotherhood—Strike Up to the Leaders.

Appleton, Wis., Jan. 22.—The strike situation as affecting five of the largest mills in the state has now resolved itself into a fight between the manufacturers and the union leaders. Which side proves the stronger in influencing the mass of paper-makers will determine in each instance whether the mills will be operated on the old hour schedule with increased wages, or whether a strike will result.

In all these mills the skilled labor, against the wishes of the officers and leaders of the brotherhood, have signed an agreement to work as formerly, in consideration of increased pay. The mill owners will do their best to hold their employers to this contract, while the strike leaders will endeavor to persuade the men to repudiate their signatures.

RENOUNCED CLAIM TO THE THRONE

Arch-Duchess Elizabeth of Austria, Is Married to a Poor Lieutenant in the Army.

Vienna, Jan. 22.—The Arch-Duchess Elizabeth, daughter of the Princess Stephanie and the late Crown Prince Rudolph was married today to Prince Otto Von Winderschraetz, a poor lieutenant in the Austrian army. Before the ceremony, which was attended by the emperor and other members of the royal family the arch-duchess renounced her claims to the throne.

E. G. Jones of Milton Junction was in the city yesterday on business.

MONEY IS READY TO PAY STONE RANSOM

American Missionary and Her Woman Companion Are Hidden on Bulgarian Frontier.

Constantinople, Jan. 22.—Notwithstanding the efforts made to keep the matter secret, it was ascertained today that the money subscribed for the ransom of Miss Ellen M. Stone and Mme. Tsilika, her companion, has been forwarded to the Americans who have been negotiating with the brigands for the release of the two women. The whereabouts of the negotiators is withheld by the officials here.

Are Now With the Brigands. London, Jan. 22.—The Sofia correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says that the American delegates to effect the release of Miss Stone, the captive missionary, have arrived at Djumaja, on the Bulgarian frontier, where it has been ascertained that Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilika are hidden.

WANTS PRESIDENT TO INTERFERE

Teller Introduces a Resolution in the Senate Concerning Death Sentence of a Boer.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—The house took up the urgent deficiency bill today in the committee of the whole in the senate this morning. Teller introduced a resolution calling on the president to request Great Britain to set aside in the interests of humanity the death sentence imposed on Commandant Scheper of the Boer army. He said he hoped later on to produce indisputable proof that the action of the British was a gross violation of warfare and called for action by this government or some other that had the interest of humanity in view.

GUESTS FLY FROM BURNING HOTEL

Central House at Pittsville, Wis., Destroyed by Fire—Many Had Narrow Escapes.

Pittsville, Wis., Jan. 22.—Several of the guests of the Central House, the largest hotel in the city, narrowly escaped being burned to death this morning. The hotel was totally destroyed by fire which originated between the ceiling and the floor in the first story.

Prompt action upon the part of the citizens saved the city hall, post office, drug store and G. A. Potter's department store from the flames which for a time threatened to destroy the entire business portion.

The proprietor, W. McLynn, had the guests warned and they rushed from their rooms clad only in their nightclothes. They had barely time to climb out of the windows and make their way to the ground on the fire escapes before the whole structure was enveloped in flames. C. C. Packard lost $1,300 in currency, which was stored in his room.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

Tacoma, Jan. 22.—All of the escaped convicts from McNeil's island prison were captured. The remaining four were taken early this morning.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 22.—Naval officers believe the missing warship Condor, may have sailed direct to the Pitcairn Islands which was its ultimate destination.

Copenhagen, Jan. 22.—It has been definitely decided that the treaty with the United States providing for the sale of the Danish West Indies is to be signed in Washington this week, all formalities here are completed.

Windsor, Jan. 22.—Solemn memorial service commenced today at the Royal Mausoleum at Frogmore to mark the anniversary of the queen's death. The king and queen and most of the royal family attended the services which were most simple.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—The committee on arrangements for the visit of Prince Henry today decided to place Boston, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Louis on his itinerary. The claims of other cities are not yet passed upon.

Manchester, Jan. 22.—The Guardian today says there is good reason to believe that Kaiser Wilhelm is using his good offices to bring about peace in South Africa.

Vienna, Jan. 22.—Wolves today devoured an entire wedding party near Salossa, Servia. The party consisted of bride, groom and twenty guests.

SALSMAN HONORED BY CAMP

Milwaukee Soldier Who Died in Philippines Is Remembered.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 22.—Edward P. Salsman, who enlisted in the First United States infantry from this city about a year ago and died in the Philippine islands last fall from wounds received in action, has been honored by the Philippine Veterans' association, and the camp will be known hereafter as the Edward P. Salsman camp.

The body of the new soldier is now on the way to Milwaukee, and when it arrives here it will be buried with military honors by the members of the new organization. Arrangements were made for the temporary quarters at 654 Twelfth street, where the next meeting will be held on Friday evening, Jan. 31. All soldiers who served in the Philippines are invited to be present.

MORE PAY FOR RURAL CARRIERS

An Increase Has Approval of the Postoffice Department.

FROM $500 to $600

And After Two Years' Regular Service, the Sum Will Reach $720.

CHANGE MAIL ROUTES

Washington, Jan. 22.—Senator Mason had a conference with the postmaster general today for the purpose of securing the issuance of an order which will remove what might be termed a discrimination against certain farmers in regard to the delivery of their mail. At present the rural free delivery carriers leave the post office by one route and return by another. As a consequence those who live near the end of the route receive their mail late every day.

It is proposed to have the carriers start one day at the beginning of a route and reverse the order of things the next. This will equalize matters so far as the time of the delivery of mail is concerned, as those residing at the beginning of the route will get their mail early one day and late the next, and the same consideration will exist with regard to those at the end of the route.

Postmaster General Payne now has the matter under consideration and will within the next few days issue an order on the subject.

More Pay for Rural Carriers

Representative McCleary today introduced a bill providing for the increase of the pay of the rural free delivery carriers. At present they receive $500 per year. The measure presented by Mr. McCleary proposes that after July 1 the pay of the carriers who have served one year shall be $600 after two years, $720. There is a general demand for this increase and it has the approval of the post-office department.

Owing to the fact that the rural free delivery carriers are required to maintain two horses, and as the pay is only $500 a year, the department has had considerable difficulty in securing competent men.

Mr. McCleary says the proposed increase are necessary to hold the men who are now in the service. In his district subscriptions have been raised for the relief of the carriers, who have found their present salary of $500 insufficient to maintain their animals and vehicles and support their families.

Asks for More Money

Secretary Wilson desires an emergency appropriation of $15,000 for use in the publications bureau of his department. There has been such a tremendous increase in the volume of his work that the funds provided for the purpose have been exhausted. During the first half of the present fiscal year 4,000,000 farmers' bulletins were distributed and during the last half 3,000,000 more will be circulated, making an aggregate of 7,000,000. This amount will be more than double the number circulated last year.

WOMEN TAILORS TO BEGIN BOYCOTT

Hugging Is Limited—Sweethearts Without Union Labor Badges Are To Be Squelched.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—When your sweetheart calls on you, see to it that he is wearing union-made clothing, or turn him out of the house," was the unique advice which James H. Payne gave to the locked-out women formerly employed by the Royal Tailors, at a meeting held yesterday afternoon.

"Don't allow his arm to encircle your waist unless it is covered by a union-made sleeve," shouted a girl in the rear of the hall.

"When you take his hat in the hallway, just look under the band, and if you don't see the union label, throw it into the street and tell him to follow it as quickly as he can. Ask him if his shoes bear the brand of honest labor, and whether he smokes union made cigars and tobacco, and if he cannot make good, tell him you are through with him."

"That is the way to win this fight you are engaged in, for if there was no demand for the product of the people who are taking your places, they would not long be wanted by the employers."

The girls applauded the advice, although one of them admitted that she thought it would be rather hard to renounce her best fellow because he did not wear a union made hat.

FITZSIMMONS HAS BAD FALL

Former Champion Tumbles Down Flight of Stairs and Injures Spine. New York, Jan. 22.—Robert Fitzsimmons, the ex-champion heavy-weight pugilist, fell down a flight of stairs in the Orpheum theater, in Brooklyn yesterday. It was believed that he seriously injured himself. He complained of very severe pains in his back and side and it was feared his spine had been hurt.

Is One Hundred Years Old

MRS. MARY A. HUNT.

Beloit Wis., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Mary A. Hunt, of this city, is 100 years old. Mrs. Hunt still reads the papers, writes letters, and does embroidery work. Last week she attended a social affair and was the life of the gathering.

Mrs. Hunt was born in Goshen, Ct., Jan. 22, 1802. She came from a long lived family, her mother having lived to the age of 97. Her maiden name was Wadhams, and Wadham College which is one of the Oxford group in England, was founded by her ancestors. When Mrs. Hunt was 3 years of age she moved with her parents to Mount Harris, N. Y., which was then practically a wilderness. She attended school at Litchfield, Conn. She was married in 1827 to Dr. Hiram Hunt, who died in 1853. In 1866 Mrs. Hunt accompanied the Rev. Fayette Royce and his wife to Bay City, Michigan, and in 1868 came with them to Beloit, where she has since lived. Dr. Royce was rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church in this city.

In her girlhood Mrs. Hunt took dinner with Red Jacket, the famous Indian orator, and was well acquainted with "Polly," an Indian woman 120 years old who attended the Pan-American exposition last summer. She attended school with Aaron Burr and also with Catherine Beecher, a sister of Henry Ward Beecher, and was present at the wedding of James G. Birney, candidate of the Liberal party in 1849 for president.

Mrs. Hunt's 100 birthday is being celebrated by a family gathering at the home of her daughters, Mrs. Royce and Mrs. E. H. Adams, with whom she lives. Among those who are present besides the daughters are Miss Royce, a granddaughter, of Beloit; D. H. Hunt and J. H. Hunt, sons, with their wives and children, Chicago; George W. and Harry Hunt, grandsons, with their families, Chicago; Mrs. Julien Jones, Normal Park, and James L. Royce, of Chicago.

NOT MANUFACTURED.

At the present time the sentiment for Mr. Whitehead for governor is not only widespread, but it is spontaneous. It is not manufactured by any one person or any few persons, but comes from the people everywhere who admire the man and whose attention has been called again so forcibly by a reiteration of his oft repeated beliefs on the solution of the taxation problem. Although Mr. Whitehead is generally regarded as a stalwart, in his honest and consistent course he has not made himself obnoxious to the half-breed faction of the party and among that element he counts many firm friends and admirers. Even the Madison Journal cordially endorses his views as expressed in his recent speech and complimented the man. The Milwaukee Free Press and other violent half breed advocates can only say that his speech was made for effect and further than that have nothing that they can find to criticize in either Mr. Whitehead or his speech.

The signs of the times point to Mr. Whitehead as the coming man for governor. The sentiment is in the air everywhere. The cry is "Honest John Whitehead and equal taxation." It is reverberating throughout the state. It will result in his nomination and election to the highest office in the gift of the people of Wisconsin. —Marionette Eagle.

THE STORM CENTER

The storm center of the campaign is to be Rock county. Plenty of men and plenty of money will be sent into the county, in an effort to make it appear that Senator Whitehead is not popular at home. Every nook and corner of the county is being canvassed, and petitions endorsing Governor La Follette are freely circulated among democrats as well as republicans. Senator Whitehead is so popular throughout the state, that the La Follette forces find it impossible to stem the tide, and they hope to stampede the movement by attacking him at home.

The scheme will fall for two reasons. In the first place, a large majority of the republican voters of the county are not satisfied with the governor's methods or policy. They have discovered that he cares more for himself than for the party, and that he shows no disposition to conciliate.

In the second place they realize that he will be opposed for renomination in the convention by some man on whom the conservative element of the party can unite. Senator Whitehead is the most available man, and it is an honor to the county when his many friends throughout the state, unite on him, and ask him, as they will shortly, to be their leader.

If the choice had fallen on Mr. Alexander, or Senator Dennett, the endorsement from Rock county would have been strong and vigorous. It will be more pronounced for Senator Whitehead. The opposition, in frantic efforts to defeat him will take the county with a fine tooth comb. Democrats, saloon men and anything to make a show, will be invited to assist.

Republicans here, as well as throughout the state have no cause for alarm. The opposition has become desperate, but it is not dangerous. Rock county republicans are noted for their level-headed common sense. When they stand up to be counted there will be no uncertainty, as to whether they think more of Republicanism than La Folletteism. The former has stood the test of time while the latter totters from weakness very early in its history. They want to see the party preserved and they propose to lend a hand, when opportunity presents. The bluster and noise of the opposition will not disturb them, for they realize that they are in the midst of the storm center. They do not favor the renomination of Gov. La Follette, and they are proud of the honor that the state proposes to confer on Senator Whitehead.

SOUTH AMERICAN INSURRECTION

The insurrection now taking place in South America may be far reaching in its results. It is among the possibilities that the United States may be called upon to act in the double capacity of mediator and protectorate. The causes that led to the trouble are briefly stated by the Chicago Record Herald.

"Colombia became free from Spain in 1819. In 1832 from it was created the republics of Venezuela, Ecuador, New Granada, and itself. To the latter was given by convention entire control over the isthmus of Panama; to Venezuela fell the prize of great cattle ranges and timber tracts; to Ecuador invaluable mines; to New Granada timber. In Colombia and Venezuela, after their formation into separate governments liberal and conservative parties formed. The liberals usually took the positions:
"No centralized government.
"No muzzled press.
"No political prisoners.
"More public works.
"Close relations with the United States.
"More democracy; less autocracy.
The conservatives assumed as their positions:
"Centralized government.
"Aversion to the United States.
"Union of church and state.
"Imprisonment for political offenses.
"Sale of concessions to foreigners.
"A consorced press.
"But by a curious reversion of the order of things in the final alignment of parties in this last Colombian-Venezuelan embroglio, the revolutions which have been in progress since 1900, the liberal party of Colombia stands largely for what the conservative party of Venezuela has advocated. Castro, president of Venezuela a supposed liberalist, has outclassed all conservatives of the past in his strength to the liberal insurgents of Colombia as against the government of that republic, which is manifestly friendly to the United States and favorable to the progress of American ideas in Central America and within its own confines.
"What concerns Colombia at the present, the government yet in existence, is that it is not alone threatened by the traitors within its own limits, but that Castro of Venezuela has done all within his power to stab it in the back. And Castro is only trusted so far as the length of a purse string. He is tarred with asphalt, he is besmirched with questionable concessions, he is overbearing, insolent, dangerous. If we really wish to know what provoked the conflict of 1900, we must look as far back as 1819, and from that year until 1902 trace in black and white the course of the two most important republics of northern South America.

"South America, more slowly, but with more attrition, than North America, has been expunging the Spaniard from its governments during the last hundred years. The wraiths of the Montezumas, of the old Aztec Monarchs, have never downed. Slaves of burden, the ladrones of the southern republics have patiently worked to the ultimate end of government free from Spanish or other foreign domination. They have not yet reached their goal, but the way is open. Its very directness, its distinctness, have been marked during the last quarter of a century by the invasion of the republics by German, English, French and American commercial agents, plantation owners, speculators.

Hostile to the Spanish. "These, naturally hostile to Spanish institutions and Spanish retrogression, have in a sense joined with the ladron spirit on one side, with the cupidity of the Spanish or the semi-Spanish rulers on the other side, and out of their financial interests, now permanently fixed from the Strait of Magellan to the Isthmus of Panama, have grown the war cries that rang out over Panama harbor today.

"The present revolution in Colombia is the outgrowth of the one which exploded and then expired in 1855. In all the republics of the south there are two political parties—the conservatives and the liberals. The conservatives are sometimes referred to as the clericals, the interests of the Roman Catholic church and themselves usually being united.

"The liberals are invariably protestants, inspired to revolt by some one of the many financial interests desirous of overturning the government for selfish ends. The situation between the two parties in Venezuela and Colombia presents much the same spectacle as did the political situation in Cuba prior to the last revolt, which ended in the war of 1898."

Castro, the president of the Venezuelan republic has proved a traitor to the trust reposed in him, and dissatisfaction and unrest has resulted. His hand has been out for anything that might be offered by spoliators from foreign countries, as was clearly demonstrated by his record in dealing with the asphalt magnates. The attack on the Colombian government was inspired by the greed of foreign capitalists, and Castro was a willing tool.

Germany is attempting to collect a claim against Venezuela, but a bankrupt treasury has but little to offer. She has been warned by the United States that territory must not be seized, and our battleship, Philadelphia, is now in the harbor at Panama, to see that the city is not bombarded.

The South American republics are weak, and the question of self government is still an open question. If the Panama route is finally selected by the American government, the interests of the United States will be enhanced, and it is among the possibilities that in time, these unprotected and semi-barbarous nations may enjoy the benefits of American civilization.

In these days of universal prosperity there are several jobs that pay better than being governor. There may be less notoriety, with more satisfaction. If Governor La Follette should find himself out among the great majority, he will have plenty of good company, and will wonder why his ambition got away with his better judgment. There's nothing in it but care and anxiety, even with a secretary who is willing to help.

Dr. Pearson of the Northwestern University, has discovered that the miracles of the bible are a myth. If he finds himself, with his discovery under his arm, looking for another job, there will be nothing supernatural about it—just a plain reward of merit.

If the Wisconsin paper mill strike becomes general it will mean a shortage of 900 tons per day. Print paper recently advanced fifty cents per cwt. and if there was money in it before, the mills should be able to hold their own at a slight advance in wages.

Death and taxes are said to be reliable. The only difference is that the former comes but once, while the latter is an annual visitor. Some people claim that they are too poor to die, while others feel that a one mill tax makes life a burden.

Among the reasons why Governor La Follette should not succeed himself, is consideration for his health. It is a little unfair of the state to ask a man to serve it as chief executive, at the expense of good digestion.

The relatives of ex-President Harrison object to his widow being placed on the pension list, claiming that she was not the wife of a president. It is another case of step-mother, but the objection is well taken.

Republicanism, and not La Folletteism, or any other personalism, will be the watchword of the campaign. Measures, not men, will be considered.

The Panama route is favored by the president, and recommended by the commission. The $40,000,000 to be paid is represented in buildings, machinery, and permanent improvements.

Long Jones may not be troubled with gubernatorial aspirations, but he is a stayer as will be discovered by the element that attempted to read him out of the conservative wing of the party.

If the tax on a summer dog is two dollars, and the tax on a ton of winter ice is ten cents, how many dogs will it take to keep the ice barons out of the state?

The Water company paid $38.00 school tax last year, and $180.00 this year, on the same property, but taxes are no higher. That's all imagination.

Prince Henry is expected to visit Milwaukee, and sample the beverage that cheers. Here's looking at him as he views the city that is said to be "behind the brewery."

The people of Old Mexico are being shaken up by earthquakes, while Wisconsin is enjoying a slight political disturbance.

If the game wardens will keep an eye to windward, while the oil inspectors watch the bung hole, the governor will have time to visit the state institutions by telephone.

While John Strange's paper mill is on a strike, he can devote his time to railroad contracts. There is plenty of business waiting for him in the southern part of the state.

This would be a dreary world without excitement. Last year it was the primary bill. This year taxes. Next year it may be both.

The way of the transgressor is said to be hard, and some good people complain that life is a little complex.

If the Whitehead boom is manufactured, it is a good job, and appears to be working overtime.

Fifty cents a hug is cheap enough. Some men pay more than that for a pleasant smile.

It is again reported that the bandits have agreed on a ransom for Miss Stone.

There is a great deal of Wisconsin ice going to waste, in spite of the ten cent tax.

What has happened to the phonetic spelling committee?

"GROUND FOR THE STIR."

There seems to be ground for the stir created by the Milwaukee Free Press when it remarked: "Should Robert M. La Follette decide to retire from the field as a candidate for governor, it would be the very acme of unwisdom for the republican party to nominate Senator John M. Whitehead." General Bryant and other intimate friends of the governor have already stated in an explicit manner that the governor is still to be considered as a candidate for another term. General Bryant is quoted as saying: "I am just as sure that La Follette will be a candidate as I am that he ran last time." Oshkosh Northwestern.

It is of little moment what opinion the personal organ of Mr. La Follette entertains in respect to Senator Whitehead's candidacy for the governorship. In any event his candidacy will likely create as much enthusiasm for party success and unity of action as that of Mr. La Follette's next year. But, and happily too, the Northwestern's agitated tone would suggest that Mr. La Follette was contemplating retirement to private life, which, if true, discloses a streak of wisdom seldom discernable in our present executive.—Gillett Times.

PRESS COMMENT.

The solicitors regard which some of the St. Croix county half-breeds manifest for the sacredness of second term precedents, did not take a very deep hold upon them in the fall of 1898, when they moved heaven and earth and sky to tumble in a solid delegation at the state convention, pledged to the defeat of Governor Scofield for renomination. That, too, after his splendid record in behalf of our army boys engaged in the Cuban war.—Hudson Star-Times.

Granted, for sake of argument, that the Wisconsin Republican league is subsidizing newspapers to oppose La Follette. Isn't it quite as honest as the work that is being done by the game wardens and oil inspectors that are electioneering for the governor while the state is paying them? The work of the Republican league isn't costing the taxpayers a cent.—Clintonville Tribune.

When Robert La Follette was elected, he was backed by a united party, with 100,000 majority. He has been in office a year and his party is so split that nearly all the republican papers are opposing him. If he were the proper man for governor would this be?—Lancaster Herald.

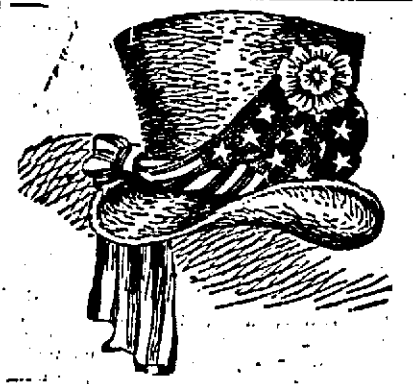

The true theory of taxation is not to raise any more money than is absolutely needed. Then the people will not complain about the rate being high. Economy in expenditure is what the state needs more than anything else.—Waupun Times.

Before going any deeper into the republican fight do not fail to remember that it was started by Robert M. La Follette, and that his success in it will mean a triumph of Populism over Republican principles. Are you ready for that?—Mauston Star.

The tax reform ideas of Senator Whitehead seem to strike the popular fancy more than do those of the governor. The latter reforms lead to increased taxes.—Marinette Eagle.

It was a pathetic sight when the Scofield cow wished the La Follette special train a Happy New Year.—Platteville Journal.

POMONA GRANGE ANNUAL MEET

Rock County Farmers
Gathered at Milton
Junction Today.

HAS FINE PROGRAM

Senator John M. Whitehead
Delivers Address on Taxation This Afternoon.

MANY GOODSPEAKERS

Milton Junction, Wis., Jan. 22.—(Special)—One of the largest conventions of farmers ever held in Rock county under the auspices of Pomona Grange, is in progress here today. Farmers have been flocking into the village this morning from all directions, and the estimates when the meeting was called to order at noon, agreed that over 1,000 were in attendance.

The notice published broad cast that Senator Whitehead would make an address this afternoon no doubt was the cause of this unusual influx. W. A. McEwan called the convention to order with a few well chosen words outlining the plans and objects of the meeting. Then followed a prayer by the Rev. C. M. Starkweather.

Rev. Milton Wells of Footville read a paper on "The Farmer's Duties as an American Citizen," and the Rev. A. W. Stephens of Edgerton followed with an address on "The Cause and Cure of Anarchism."

Rev. C. M. Starkweather read an able paper on "Reforming the Election Primaries" at the opening of the afternoon session and Vie H. Campbell of Evansville followed with an address on Temperance.

Senator Whitehead's address was not delivered until after 3 o'clock. A big crowd was in the hall to hear the Janesville man's speech which was an exposition of reform in taxation. Program tomorrow and Friday.

The program for this evening and tomorrow and Friday is as follows:

PHILIPPINE TARIFF TALK IN SENATE

Mr. Lodge Urges That the Majority Measure Be Enacted Into Law.

CRITICISES WAR SECRETARY.

Irrigation of Arid Lands in the West and the Advantages of Retaining the Philippine Tariffs. Up Time of the Lower House.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—For nearly three hours yesterday the Senate had under consideration the Philippine tariff bill. The debate was opened by Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the Committee on the Philippines. He sketched in a free-hand way the reasons which had actuated the majority in presenting the measure and urged strongly its enactment into law at an early date.

Mr. Rawlins of Utah delivered a vigorous speech in support of the minority substitute, in which independence was promised to the Filipino as soon as a stable government could be established.

Mr. Bacon of Georgia sharply criticized the Secretary of War for an alleged violation of the law in permitting vessels flying a foreign flag to participate in the commerce between the United States and the Philippines.

Mr. Lodge reviewed briefly the past method of the government of the Philippines by the United States and then took up the recent Supreme Court decisions holding the Philippines to be domestic territory and all duties levied upon articles void.

He called attention to the necessity of coastwise legislation for the islands under decisions of the Supreme Court.

"Open Door" to Remain.

Mr. Lodge said that to discriminate in favor of the United States on products going to the Philippines would diminish the revenues and would break down the policy of the "open door." He explained the Senate committee's reduction of the Dingley rates to the extent of 25 per cent, saying that the committee had not felt it wise to make a further reduction.

He said the removal of the export duties did not affect the open door policy; if it did he would oppose it. He defended the policy of the free importation of hemp as in the interest of the agricultural element.

In reply to Mr. Bacon, Mr. Lodge said that the War Department had had to meet an emergency in issuing its order temporarily authorizing all vessels to engage in the coastwise trade of the Philippines. To have failed to do this would have wrecked the commerce of the islands.

Bills Passed.
The following bills were passed: Appropriating $150,000 each for the erection of public buildings in Muncie, Ind., and Anderson, Ind.; appropriating $150,000 for maintenance of the northern branch of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers at Hot Springs, S. D.

In the Lower House.
The irrigation of lands in the West and the advisability of retaining control of the Philippines were the main topics under discussion in the House.

Against Cuban Reciprocity.
Washington, Jan. 22.—The ways and means committee yesterday resumed its hearing on Cuban reciprocity, with special reference to the proposed reduction on Cuban tobacco. John R. Young, president of the National Leaf Tobacco association, made an earnest plea against any tobacco concessions to Cuba. He said there undoubtedly was a public sentiment in favor of granting relief to Cuba, but he contended that we should be as just to the people of our own country as to the people of foreign countries.

To Elect Senators by Direct Vote.
Washington, Jan. 22.—The committee on the election of President and Vice President of the House made a favorable report on the bill for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. The report follows literally that of last year and presents the advantages of popular election of senators.

Bill for General Longstreet.
Washington, Jan. 22.—Senator Morgan yesterday introduced a bill placing General James Longstreet on the retired list of the army with the rank of major, the rank he held when he entered the service of the Confederacy at the beginning of the civil war.

War on Bucket Shops.
Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 22.—The chamber of commerce has by vote adopted the "Chicago amendment" to the rules, making it necessary for the names of the principals in all trades to be reported. The officers of the chamber will proceed at once to make warm war on the bucket-shops.

A CARD.
We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50 cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded.

Schley Arrives at Washington.
Washington, Jan. 22.—Rear Admiral and Mrs. Schley arrived in Washington yesterday after a ten days' visit to Savannah. The date of filing the admiral's appeal from the recent decision of the court of inquiry, which the President has consented to consider, has not been determined.

Tobacco Trust for Mexico.
Austin, Texas, Jan. 22.—Advices were received here yesterday from Monterey, Mexico, that the American Tobacco company has secured options on all the principal cigarette manufacturing of Mexico, and that it purposes to secure control of the tobacco trade of that country.

Crisis in Cuban Affairs.
Havana, Jan. 22.—Gen. Wood says that a critical period in Cuban affairs is approaching. Bankers have refused to advance Cuban planters money in view of the present outlook for the sugar market. This action means the closing up of many plantations in a short while.

Father Morrisey No Better.
Notre Dame, Ind., Jan. 22.—There is very little change in Rev. Father Morrisey's condition since last Saturday. Dr. Berteling, who is with President Morrisey, refuses to state that his patient is on the road to recovery.

Philippine Chief Surrenders.
Manila, Jan. 22.—The insurgent leader, Bricio Laque, and his entire command on Jan. 20 surrendered unconditionally to the American military authorities in Batangas province. Laque's command had become so scattered that it was unable to hold out any longer.

Oklahoma Opera House Burned.
Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 22.—A $50,000 fire occurred Sunday at Perry, Okla., the greatest loss being the new opera house, just completed, and one of the most expensive in the southwest.

Kitchener's Weekly Report.
London, Jan. 22.—Lord Kitchener reports that since Jan. 12 thirty-one Boers were killed, thirteen were wounded, 170 were made prisoners and forty-one surrendered.

To Search for the Condor.
Victoria, B. C., Jan. 22.—The cruiser Phaeton has gone to search for the missing warship Condor, of which no news has been received.

Rixey Made Surgeon General.
Washington, Jan. 22.—The President yesterday nominated Dr. Presley M. Rixey to be surgeon general of the navy.

A Medicine for Old People.

Rev. Gen. Gay, Greenwich, Kas., is past 83 years of age, yet he says: "I am enjoying excellent health for a man of my age, due entirely to the rejuvenating influences of Dr. Miles' Nervine. It brings sleep and rest when nothing else will, and gives strength and vitality even to one of my old age."

"I am an old soldier," writes Mr. Geo. Watson, of Newton, Ia., "and I have been a great sufferer from nervousness, vertigo and spinal trouble. Have spent considerable money for medicine and doctors, but with little benefit. I was so bad my mind showed signs of weakness. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I know it saved my life."

Dr. Miles' Nervine

Saved me from the insane asylum," Mrs. A. M. Heiler, of Jerico Springs, Mo., writes. "I was so nervous that I could scarcely control myself, could not sleep nor eat, would even forget the names of my own children at times. I commenced using Dr. Miles' Nervine and it helped me from the first, and now I am perfectly well."

SAVES LIFE

Willard, Ill., August 1, 1900.
I was in bad health this spring and could not sit up in bed for four weeks. When I was confined my child died. When I began to sit up I felt so weak and had such terrible pains in my back and hips I had kidney trouble and falling of the womb. I also had hysterical spells. I was in a bad condition when I received your "Ladies' Birthday Almanac" and read the advertisement of Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught. Since April 20th, I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui and three packages of Theodor's Black-Draught. I feel like a new person now. I can do all my work and can walk out to see any of my neighbors. I believe I would have been in the grave had it not been for Wine of Cardui. IT SAVED MY LIFE.
Mrs. ALICE DAVIS.

It is well that women are more patient than men. Few men could bear the bitter pangs, the agony and distress that women endure. Thousands of women have come to look upon suffering as a duty of their sex. But there are many instances of this heroic fortitude which now renders unnecessary. Women need no longer suffer for modesty's sake. Wine of Cardui brings relief to modest women in the privacy of their homes. Many of the best homes in this city are never without this great medicine. It cures whites and falling of the womb and completely eradicates these dragging periodical pains. Mrs. Davis' cure shows you conclusively what you may expect if you follow her example and take Wine of Cardui. Theodor's Black-Draught aids Wine of Cardui by regulating the stomach and bowels. When you ask your druggist for these medicines, be sure you get them. It was Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught that saved Mrs. Davis' life. Never take a substitute.

WINE OF CARDUI

TO REPORT CREED REVISION.

Presbyterian Committee Called to Meet in New York Week After Next.

Pittsburg, Jan. 22.—The Presbyterian creed revision committee has been called to meet in Philadelphia the week after next to hear the reports of the several subcommittees. It is expected that the finishing touches will be put on the "declaratory statement of the things which are most surely believed," as the subcommittee has completed the outline.

The plan is to report this short creed to the next general assembly, as the committee feels that it will not satisfy the church to simply report progress. The statement to be issued recognizes the fundamental doctrines of Calvinism, and expresses them in popular form.

It teaches the existence of God, the doctrine of divine sovereignty, the trinity, the divinity of Christ, the inspiration of the scriptures, life everlasting, the atonement, predestination and other fundamental truths, but avoids the old phraseology around which controversy raged in the past.

National Bank Statement.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—The Controller of the Currency has made the following statement in regard to the condition of national banks:

"The aggregate resources show a total of $5,722,730,635. The individual deposits total is $2,964,417,965. The total capital, surplus and undivided profits on Dec. 10 was $1,114,235,943.

"Loans and discounts show an increase since Dec. 13, 1900, of $331,720,863. Bills payable and rediscounts show an increase for the year of $6,264,815. Stock and securities increased for the year by $78,100,939. The circulation shows an increase for the year of $20,549,992.

"The average reserve is 26.71 per cent., or 1.71 per cent more than legal requirement."

Evidence Disproves Cruelty Charge.

Iola, Kan., Jan. 22.—Several former members of the Twentieth Kansas Regiment have sent affidavits to Washington bearing on the charge against Gen. Wilder S. Metcalf, nominated to be pension agent for the Kansas district, that he shot or was a witness to the shooting of two Filipino prisoners.

Although the evidence makes it positive that the prisoners were shot in cold blood by American soldiers, it seems certain that Gen. Metcalf did not see and probably did not hear the shooting.

Ex-Speaker May Go Free.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 22.—Circuit Judge West has notified both the prosecution and the defense in the alleged legislative bribery case against ex-Speaker of the House Adams that they need have no witnesses at Mason when the case is called there to-day. This is taken as positive indication that Adams will be discharged owing to the inability to secure C. H. Pratt's testimony under the ruling of the supreme court.

Inasmuch as the case against W. A. French is in precisely the same condition, his discharge is looked for.

How for Telephone Trust.

Warsaw, Ind., Jan. 22.—To enable the independent telephone companies to compete for business with larger corporations a meeting was held by managers of seven important county seats of northern Indiana here yesterday and arrangements were made to construct copper metallic circuit lines on the cooperative plan connecting Fort Wayne, Columbia City, Warsaw, Plymouth, Rochester, Logansport and South Bend. The work of construction will begin at once.

Will Not Release Bergman.

Scranton, Pa., Jan. 22.—The Superior court has decided that Alexander Bergman, who attempted to assassinate H. C. Frick in 1892, must serve his full term of twenty-one years, less the usual allowance for good behavior. Bergman's attorneys recently asked for his release, claiming the benefit of the new commutation law passed by the last legislature.

Breaks Engagement with Marconi.

New York, Jan. 22.—Mrs. H. B. Holman of this city announced yesterday that her daughter Josephine had asked William Marconi, the developer of wireless telegraphy, to release her from her engagement to marry him, and that Mr. Marconi had complied with her request.

Kansas Commander Sued.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 22.—The executive committee of the Kansas G. A. R. ordered Martin Norton, the department commander, to vacate his office at once. The committee was in session all day yesterday investigating charges preferred against Norton and sustained them in every particular.

Seven Men Burned to Death.

Humbleton, W. Va., Jan. 22.—About 4 o'clock Tuesday morning Camp Five of the Otter Creek Boom and Lumber company, several miles from here in the forest, took fire and burned so rapidly that seven of the forty men asleep in the building failed to get out and were burned to death.

Capture Two Escaped Convicts.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 22.—Three federal convicts, W. D. Snyder, sent up from Idaho; James Carroll, an Alaska murderer, and Harry Davis, a Nome thief, were recaptured Monday evening. Davis afterward broke away from his captors and again escaped.

Indians May Cause Trouble.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 22.—Forty Indians on the Tama reservation have died of smallpox. The Indians refuse to permit the health officials to burn the infected tepees, and it is possible force may have to be used to enforce the health regulations.

SIX CORNERS

Six Corners, Jan. 22.—James Monogue died at his home here Wednesday afternoon after an illness of about a week of pleurisy. Although the deceased had lived in this immediate vicinity only about three years yet he had made many friends and was held in high esteem by everyone. A goodly number spent a very enjoyable evening at the W. C. T. U. social at Mr. Hayward's last evening. The little daughter of Dexter Gray is much better of its recent illness. Dr. Blunnewells of Milton is in attendance.

Frank Story has a brother from Iowa visiting him. He would like to purchase a small farm in Rock county and make it his home.

Harvey Godfrey of Whitewater is here for a few days to attend to filling his ice houses connected with his creameries near here. The ice will be taken from Spaulding's lake.

children. But there can be no joy in motherhood without health, and without health for the mother there can be no health for the child.

It is of vital importance for women to know that the health of mother and child is in general entirely within woman's control. The thousands of women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when expecting motherhood, have testified that it made them healthy and happy in the days of waiting, made the baby's advent practically painless, and gave them health to give their children.

Mrs. W. J. Kidder, of Hill Dale Farm (Knosburg Center), Knosburg, Va., writes: "During the past year I found myself expecting maternity, and in rapidly failing health. I suffered dreadfully from bloating and urinary difficulty. I was growing perceptibly weaker each day and suffered much sharp pain at times. I felt that something must be done. I sought your advice and received a prompt reply. Took twelve bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and also followed your instructions. I began to improve immediately. My health became excellent, and I could do all my own work (we live on a good sized farm). I walked and rode all I could, and enjoyed it. I had a short, easy confinement and have a healthy baby boy."
